THE GREAT RICHARDSON SALE.

Auctioneer James T. Johnson Cries His Biggest Sale—Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars Worth of Fine Jacks Sold.

The greatest sale Auctioneer Jim Johnson ever cried, and he has sold lots of stock, was the W. A. Richardson sale, 3 1/2 miles north of Moberly yesterday. Stock sold well and there was a great deal of good blood which went to all parts of the country. The sale was widely advertised and buyers were present from remote corners of the land. Some of them bought jacks who had never seen one before and took them home and are happy. The stock sold brought, all told, nearly $35,000. Of this amount, forty jacks, at from $500 to $1,200 each, brought $25,000. There were fifteen jennets sold at from $100 to $325, twelve stallions at from $125 to $600, forty head of 2-year-old cattle at $28.50 per head, and forty sheep at $6.95.

A Respected Citizen.

Richard T. Stockton, one of Mexico's most respected citizens, died at his home at midnight Saturday night. For some time past Mr. Stockton has been city weigher and was invariably accommodating, making friends with all who came in contact with him. He was 75 years old and had been complaining for some time. Heart failure was the immediate cause of his death. Mr. Stockton was born at Flemingsburg, Ky., and came to Bloomington, Ill., in 1856. In 1858 he moved to Boone county, Mo., coming to Audrain in 1881. He leaves four children, three boys and one girl, the daughter being Mrs. Tomas Helm, of this city. The funeral services were conducted today at the Christian church, of which he was a consistent member. Rev. W. B. Taylor officiating.

The Marshfield Lincing.

W. S. Harrison is home from a trip to Marshfield, Mo. He arrived at that town just in time to see the hanging of Richard Cullen, who was swung up in the Court House yard there at 10 o'clock Friday night by a mob. Cullen was accused of taking the life of his stepfather's 4-year-old son by throwing the little one in a well to perish. The murderer, on being asked if he had any thing to say, remarked: "I am innocent; put your damned rope!"

Mr. Harrison said the lynchers were masked and disappeared as soon as the body was swung up. After he was cut down by the officers a photographer took a picture of the corpse and also of the dead child. Mr. Harrison brought one of each home with him and a piece of the rope that was used.

F. R. Jesse, the out going Prosecuting Attorney of Audrain County, has made a most conscientious and faithful officer. Mr. Jesse is a young man of a thorough education, ambitious and a devoted student. He has made a painstaking, active and satisfactory county attorney. Too much importance can not be placed on the necessity of having a good lawyer in this office. The County Court, when it needs any directions, calls on the County Attorney. It takes a good lawyer to draw indictments which will stick. Criminals, when arrested, employ the best attorney they can secure. This is a very important office and all law abiding citizens are interested in seeing that this office should be filled with the very best material available.

Circuit Court Notes.

Jesse B. Sampson vs. Peter J. Mitchell; judgment for defendant. J. H. Crawford vs. W. O. Armstrong; judgment for plaintiff, $104. Judgment for plaintiff on plea in abatement. E. W. Edmonston, application for license to practice law withdrawn. J. C. Buckner vs. R. H. Caution; continued by consent of parties. John Spotswood vs. J. P. Armstrong et al.; case continued.

Brenton vs. Wakefield.
The case of Miss Laura Brenton against Charley Wakefield for breach of promise was called in the Circuit Court Saturday. The attorney for plaintiff is W. W. Fry, for defendant George Robertson. The jury in this case is as follows: Jos. Stillwell, T. W. Botkins, Ben Franklin, Robert Luckie, G. S. Brown, John Crews, Charles Mansfield, L. M. Ketter, E. S. Frost, J. D. McKee, John Campbell and J. N. Berry. A large and interested audience was in attendance.

The Sedalia (Mo.) Democrat says:—Dr. Keeley continues scooping in the shekels, notwithstanding the New York legislature proposes to investigate the Keeley institute at White Plains in that State. The doctor has just closed a contract with the government for the adoption of the Keeley treatment in the national and state military homes of the country, and no longer will the lads in blue go around with breaths that rival a distillery.

A Doctor of No Little Merit.

The clever young advance agent, Mr. Walters, representing the renowned eye and nose specialist, Dr. Dunbar, came down from Sturgeon this afternoon, where he has the Doctor billed for a two weeks stand, commencing the 12th of March. The success Dr. Dunbar has met with throughout Missouri during his visits to the 114 counties in the State, brands him a specialist of no little merit.

Resolutions of Respect.

WHEREAS, It has pleased our Heavenly Father, in His wise providence, to take unto Himself our beloved brother, W. T. Bradley, who was a deacon and a true and faithful member of Hopewell Baptist Church, whose heart was ever enlisted for the cause of Christ, and whose hand was a liberal and strong support to the church. While we cannot fathom God's purposes in taking one so useful and willing in His service, yet we bow humbly to the will of Him who doeth all things well, and in whose providences there are no mistakes. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the death of our beloved brother, the church has lost a valuable and worthy member and his family a loving husband and father.

Resolved, That we tender to our bereaved sister and her children our loving sympathy in this dark hour of trial, and commend them to the Father of the orphan and husband of the widow and covenant to remember them in our prayers.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of our deceased brother, and also be spread upon our church record, and to both Mexico papers for publication.

Done by order of Hopewell Church at its regular meeting, January 23, 1892.

E. D. JESSE,
Ed. RODHOUSE,
H. T. BROWN,
Committee.

Obituary.
John Dalton was born February 7, 1876, and died at the residence of J. S. Neal, Youngs Creek post-office, February 24, 1892, hence he was 16 years and 17 days old. His mother was a member of the Methodist Church, and had him baptized when a child. His mother died 7 years ago, and his father several years before she died. When his parents died, especially his mother, he lived in St. Louis, but after her death he was taken charge of by Rev. Hicks, through whose influence he came to live with Bro. Neal six years ago last fall. He had a good home with Bro. and sister Neal, who will greatly miss him. He was not a member of the church, but he was a good boy, kind in his bearing towards everybody. He was liked by all that knew him, and was mourned by a large concourse of friends at his death. His funeral was preached by the writer February 25, 1892, and he was laid away until the great resurrection morn. at Midway church. His disease was consumption, and after having the grip, it developed very rapidly to his death. How important it is to be ready to die, while yet young, for death loves a shining mark. May God bless all his associates and school mates, and help us all to be ready when death shall come. J. W. OWEN.

St. Louis papers please copy.

Gone to Rest.
Rebecca Goodrich died Feb. 21, 1892, age 96 years. It has pleased our Father in heaven to call one of our dear old friends to her home. By her death, our hearts were made sad, we mourn for one who was loved by all who knew her. Please let a copy of these few lines be sent to the family and published in all county papers:

You have planned in the future,
You have loved with tender care,
But your mother is now unfolding,
Midst the angels pure and fair.

Much you miss your tender mother,
None can ever take her place,
And the anguish, and the heartache,
Call for heavenly strength and grace.

You will miss your dear old mother,
You will miss her from this place,
You will miss her loving voice,
And the sunshine of her face.

You will miss her kind and willing hand,
Her fond and earnest care,
You will miss her in the darkness,
Yes you will miss her everywhere.

But we trust the joy and fragrance,
She has thrown upon the past,
May be strengthened in the future,
And complete in heaven at last.

Mules to be Sold.
At stock sales March 5th, at Mexico, in front of Lan Morris' livery stable, will be sold 22 head of coming 3-year-old mules, 15 to 16 hands high, majority of mules broke to work. Above described stock will be sold on 6 months' time. Note given must be acceptable at Mexico Southern Bank as stock is sold under lien held by said bank. 45-3t Geo. L. BENNETT.

Herbert, the four year old son of Mr. Wm. Byrns, a son-in-law of John Spotswood, who was scalded on Thursday, is out of danger. Dr. Varnon informed the writer that the little fellow fell backwards into a kettle of boiling water and was badly scalded on the arms and back.

Eld. J. H. Hardin, formerly pastor of the Christian church of this city, has accepted a position as Assistant-General Secretary of the Mission work of the Christian Church of the United States. We think he is a splendid man for this position.

The Centralia Guard says: Mrs. L. F. Herndon, of Saling Township, Audrain County, realized from the products of her farm during the past year the sum of $3800. Who can beat it?

Ex-Gov. C. H. Hardin.

Ex-Governor Hardin is leading a quiet life on his farm in Audrain county. He is entirely out of politics, but his interest in the affairs of State and nation has never flagged. Governor Hardin was elected Missouri's chief executive in 1873. His administration was one of the strongest the State has ever experienced. The ex-Governor is now 72 years of age, but he looks less than sixty. His hair is white, but his face is ruddy, his hand-shake hearty and his step firm. He looks good for many years of business life. Below is a portrait of the ex-Governor.

Ex-Governor C. H. Hardin.

sides being president of the Southern bank at Mexico, he is the founder and president of Hardin College at that town. He has already given more than $70,000 to the school, which is in a very prosperous condition. Governor Hardin is taking a very strong interest in the approaching gubernatorial contest, because of the amount of young blood already spoken of in the fight. His age and business interests prevent him from taking any active part in politics.

New Washington, Penn., People
Are not slow about taking hold of a new thing, if the article has merit. A few months ago David Byers, of that place, bought his first stock of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He has sold it all and bought more. He says: "It has given the best of satisfaction. I have warranted every bottle, and have not had one come back." 25 cent, 50 cent and $1.00 bottles for sale by C. A. BUCKNER.

WALKER DISTRICT.
Correspondence of the Ledger.
WALKER DISTRICT, February 29.—We are glad to report that the prospects for wheat are improving, and if the spring is favorable there will be a large crop yet.

The roads are almost impassable, in fact they are impassable with a loaded wagon. There should be three times as much work done on them as there is. They should be put in proper condition. They would enhance the value of Audrain lands at least 25 per cent.

We can go to a sale every day now if we want to.

Mr. R. H. Lee was summoned to Quincy, Ill., to the bed side of his father, who is not expected to live.

Mr. James Wilcox arrived with his bride on the 27th inst. He says it is not good for a man to be alone.

Mrs. Patrick Denway, who has been in a very critical condition, we are glad to report, is improving.

Mr. William Collins, of Kansas City, visited the home folks last week.

Our delegates to the St. Louis convention returned with a smile on their faces last week.

We have plenty of timber in the East End for County Judge, but why isn't Joel Pierce good enough. He is a man of judgment, well located and acquainted with our interests, and would fill the place with honor to himself and constituency.

MULES FOR SALE.
I have for sale, 10 miles east of Mexico, 16 mules 2 years old, coming 3, from 15 to 16 1/2 hands high. These mules are in good condition. I will sell them single or in pairs for cash, or on six months time. W. T. TOLSON, Martinsburg, Mo.

The public school building at Brunswick, Mo., was burned Sunday night. The school will be continued in Prof. Hignight's residence. The professor says that his rooms are large and will answer the purpose until a new building is erected.

Harrison Robinson informs us that Mr. Horseman, a gentleman who has recently moved to Mexico from St. Louis, living in the Lewis Ford property in Southwest Mexico, is sick. Mr. Horseman is not well acquainted in Mexico, but will be looked after by the neighbors.

George Frank and J. A. Pendleton, of Laddonia, will go West and embark in business on a large scale. They have considerable cash behind them and are both thorough business men. Mr. Pendleton has been in the hardware business in Laddonia.

The body of Miss Gibbs, daughter of R. C. Gibbs, who died Monday of consumption, was interred in the Mexico cemetery on Tuesday. The funeral services were held at the Baptist church at 2 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. Mr. A. E. Rogers.

Lost.
